Miracle at Indian Key

Synopsis

Best friends, sixteen year old CJ Jansen and Skye Somers spend their vacations together fishing and boating in the Florida Keys, but this summer is different. A budding relationship slowly develops as fifteen year old Skye discovers that she can communicate with a pelican named Flapper and a dolphin named Squeaky, both who become great friends of the teens. An exploding boat, a murder conspiracy, a body in a sunken hull, sharks and smugglers drive the two to discover the secrets around Islamorada. Finally, a swim across the channel to the tiny island of Indian Key could have cost the adventurous teenagers their lives, until they discovered that miracles do happen.
